

Carbon Offsets on "The Current"

Monday, 22 January 2007

"The Current" is a daily current affairs programme on the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation radio station. On January 22, Kevin Smith from Carbon Trade Watch was interviewed about the problems of carbon offset schemes, alongside Tim Yeo, the Shadow Environment Minister in the UK, and Hadi Dowlatabadi of the offsets company Cool Drive Pass.

To hear the 20-minute segment, click here.

If you would like to receive a copy of the forthcoming Carbon Trade Watch publication, The Carbon Neutral Myth: Offset Indulgences For Your Climate Sins, send an email to kevin@SPAMBLOCKcarbontradewatch.org